Date: 09 Oct 2025

Subject: PRH Fall Vaccination Program

With the co-circulation of respiratory diseases this fall such as influenza, COVID and RSV, vaccinations will be very important to protect the health of individuals, families and communities, while also reducing the impacts on our healthcare system.

Staff, Physician and Volunteer Vaccination Program:

Starting October 9th, the Occupational Health and Safety Team will be offering the seasonal influenza vaccine as per schedule below. The clinics will be drop-in for staff, physicians, and volunteers.
